

DISSERTATION COMPETITION

DAY 1 11:00-12:30 MONDAY, 3 AUGUST

EARLY MODERN

O1 2F ROOM B1

Masters of War. State, capital, and military enterprise in the Dutch cycle of accumulation (1600-1795)

Pepijn BRANDON, Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam

An inquiry into the nature, causes and distribution of wealth in the Cape Colony, 1652-1795

Johan FOURIE, Stellenbosch University

The Political Economy of the Ganga River: Highway of State Formation in Mughal India, c.1600-1800.

Murari Kumar JHA, National University of Singapore

LONG 19TH CENTURY

O2 2F ROOM B2

Natural Resources, Settler Economies and Economic Development during the First Globalization: Land Frontier Expansion and Institutional Arrangements

Henry Francisco WILLEBALD, Universidad de la República, Uruguay

Globalisation and the Ottoman Empire

A study of integration between Ottoman and world cotton markets

Laura PANZA, The University of Melbourne

The Development of Intra-Southeast Asian Trade in the Nineteenth Century: With Reference to the Role of Singapore

Atsushi KOBAYASHI, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies

20TH CENTURY

O3 1F ROOM C1

The hegemony of growth. The making and remaking of the economic growth paradigm and the OECD, 1948-2010

Matthias SCHMELZER, University of Geneva

Monetary policy and credit policy during France's Golden Age, 1945-1973

Eric MONNET, Banque de France, Paris School of Economics