

Call for Papers to Session S20109

XVIIth World Economic History Congress, Kyoto, Japan, 3-7 August 2015

■ Session Title: Production, trade and business organization in the dairy sector between early industrialization and globalization.

■ Call for Papers

Deadline of the Call : 30th January 2015

Guideline of the Call:

A title and an abstract of no more than 500 words should be sent by 30th January 2015.

Accepted proposals will be notified by 15th February 2015.

A final title and full paper will be required for 30th March 2015, to be included in the Congress Program.

Remarks:

The aim of the session is to provide new insights into the development of the dairy sector in a wide international perspective, presenting contributions on different countries, regions and local realities in the 19th and 20th centuries. Papers offering a comparative perspective and/or studies on non-European cases are particularly welcome.

Submissions may address (but are not limited to) the following issues:

- Firms, networks, business systems and organization
- Different kind and size of firms in local and global contexts: multinationals and local initiatives, family firms, large and small enterprises
- Domestic and international markets and trade
- Technological innovation and scientific progress in production systems
- Relationship between consumption trends and the evolution of dairy products
- The impact of globalization on the dairy sector
